

Project Aim: -

With social media influencers, makeup artists, and vloggers leading the charge, beauty and wellness products, techniques, and procedures that were once available only to the rich and famous now have increasing exposure among consumers. M&M is looking to capitalize this trend for continued business and wider reach

The aim of your project is to build a system to enable M&M be able to conduct their business in the online space, track activities in real-time, and most importantly being secured. This will be in line with the automation of some manual processes making it current with the latest features in the market, the interface, and interaction of users to be seamless.

Timeline: - 8 weeks (no tolerance)

Start Date: - 16/03/2022

Budget: - £5000